Most Outstanding IB Student Organization Guidelines

(as adapted from the CAL Most Outstanding Student Organization Guidelines)

1. All IB-based student organizations that are officially recognized for the academic year are qualified for screening.
2. The nomination form should be accomplished by any of the organization's officers, duly noted by their faculty advisers. A complete list of members (Appendix A) and documentation of accomplishments (Appendix B) like photos, certificates, etc., should be attached to the nomination form. Deadline for submission is on May 26, 2017 (Friday) at the IB Admin Office.
3. The recipient of the Most Outstanding IB Student Organization award will be given either monetary aid or free use of the Institute's facilities to assist the organization in its projects.
4. Awarding will be done during the IB Recognition Program.
5. The Board of Judges will be comprised of: the Director of the Institute, one of the deputy directors of the Institute, the FSAAR Chairperson, the Institute of Biology representative, and a representative from the College of Science Student Council.
6. Scores of all five judges for each organization will be tallied. The organization with the highest points receives the recognition.
7. The decision of the Board of Judges is final.
